Due to the Executive Order signed on Thursday, April 7 by the Governor, all Monmouth County parks have officially closed effective today. All state and county parks will remain closed until the Governor lifts the Executive Order. At that point, County parks will be opened immediately.

All public is restricted from parks and golf courses. Park and golf course entrances and parking lots are gated or barricaded and visitors who gain park access by foot or bike will be directed to leave, as the parks will still be patrolled. Marina services are suspended but owners will have access to their boats.
